Same Day Appointments
877-404-4500

If you or your child are sick and your provider wants to see you right away (within 24 hours), SoonerRide (SR) can take you and up to three additional children to your same day medical appointment.

- The medical appointment must be urgent (to be seen within 24 hours) as determined by the member's doctor. SR will confirm with your doctor.
- All children must be related to the SoonerCare member by birth, marriage, legal adoption, foster child,or legal guardianship.
- All children (not the patient) must be younger than 13 years of age unless the child has complex medical, intellectual or physical disabilities and are in need of constant care and adult supervision.
- All children must have their own car seat, provided by the member, if required, by state law.
- The member must make the request for additional child passengers when making the trip reservation.
